

The Galileo Verona is an incredible performance instrument that combines advanced features at a budget price. Perfect for piano students or music enthusiasts, the Verona starts with an authentic Graded-Hammer keyboard to correctly develop piano technique, and adds a built-in learning program as well as a number of high-quality professional sounds. You can record yourself on the built-in 2 track sequencer and even connect your Verona to your tablet or computer through the USB and audio connections.

There are 3 full-function piano pedals, a sliding key cover, elegant console-style legs, Headphone connections and a matching piano bench! The Verona —the perfect piano for your home!
